ORIGIN

- 25X1X 1. It has been reported that the Febrerista Party now openly maintains its headquarters at Calle Buenos Aires 1236 in Clorinda, Argentina. The Febrerista Executive Committee is located there, and its activities are allegedly known to the Argentine authorities. Couriers are sent back and forth across the river to Asuncion to direct the Party's affairs there.
2. The Executive Committee has set up machinery for the censorship of letters between Asuncion and the rebel territory to the north. The letters are picked up in Asuncion and taken to the headquarters in Clorinda, Argentina, where, after censorship, they are placed in the hands of anyone who happens to be travelling to the rebel territory.
